MARVEL
COMIC GROUP

a letter to our readers and their PARENTS!

HI, FRIENDS:

It has been reliably reported that in England, back in the 18th Century, book stores were called "slop shops of literature," simply because they sold novels. And that was the century in which some of our greatest classics were written; the century of Defoe, who wrote Robinson Crusoe, and Swift and his Gulliver's Travels. It was also the century of Dr. Samuel Johnson, one of the brightest stars in the history of English literature. And it was Dr. Johnson who most vociferously defended the right of booksellers to sell the new, much abused novels and the right of authors to express themselves in this medium if they desired.

But what Dr. Johnson defended most enthusiastically was the right of the public to read what they wanted to read. And what we are defending is the right of youngsters to read whichever they like of the many, many good, clean comics currently being published.

Just as the critics of the 18th Century rapped the books which are now classics, in the same way there are critics of today, screaming and tearing out their hair, because a new kind of magazine, still in its infancy, is not to their liking. And as in the case of the novel, it is still too early for any man to pass judgment on the comics.

Let these critics of today look to their history. Let them decide if they want to be remembered as the 20th Century counterpart of the people who called Robinson Crusoe "slop".

And let the people of America decide if they want to be swayed by critics exercising premature judgment . . . or if they want to wait and watch, and soon realize that most comic magazines are really good, clean, healthful and entertaining reading matter.

THE EDITORS,
MARVEL COMIC GROUP

P. S.—Remember: Dr. Jean Thompson, School Psychiatrist, Child Guidance Bureau, New York City Board of Education, is now our Editorial Consultant. Dr. Thompson's professional examination of our magazines, as advisor to our staff, (see Page 1) is your guarantee that the Marvel Comic Group magazines are striving to bring you the very best in reading matter . . . and it is also your best argument that no one should ever take away your right to read these magazines.

TERRY'S TRIUMPH

"THAT was a terrific basket, Terry! I don't know how you do it!" Betty shrugged her petite shoulders prettily, closed her gym locker and picked up her books. "Ready?" she asked as she turned to her friend.

"Ready," Terry replied, then smiled her thanks at some of the other girls who stopped to congratulate her as they were leaving the gym.

"Guess we should have known better than to think we could win the basketball championship against a team led by you, Terry," Linda Shaw, captain of the losing team, said. "You're a great player."

Terry kept smiling until everyone had left the locker room except Betty and her. Then, "All right, let's go," she said grimly, slamming her locker door shut and grabbing her books up almost viciously. Betty was amazed; she'd never before seen Terry in anything except a calm good humor.

But she said nothing until they were outside and headed for home. Terry kept her eyes glumly pinned to the sidewalk as if she were planning some decisive finish for an opponent on the tennis court or hockey rink. When two members of the football team passed by and waved to them, all Terry gave in return was a brief nod—and just the term before she'd earned the everlasting gratitude of those same two boys by advising them on how to beat their opponents in the biggest game of the year!

This was too much for Betty. "What is the matter with you?" she asked, astonishment in every word. "I've never seen you like this before. What's wrong?"

"Oh, nothing," Terry mumbled, shifting her books wearily to her other arm. "Just everything!"

"Everything?" Betty was amazed. "Why, you're acting as if you didn't have a friend in the world. And you know as well as I do that you're the most-looked-up-to girl at Johnson High."

"I know. That's just it." Terry glared moodily at the ground. "All the kids know they can always rely on me. I'm the one who's always expected to get the winning point. I'm the one who's always in charge of decorations because I'm so dependable. I'm the one who always asks the principal for something extra for the class because everyone knows he'll think it's a perfectly sensible idea if I'm supporting it!"

Terry paused for breath, and Betty just stared. There must be something terribly wrong with Terry, she thought. Why, everyone knew she was the best-natured girl in the school! And here she was raving as if she had a grudge against everyone she'd ever helped.

"And what's more," Terry continued, "I'm the one every boy in the school comes to with his troubles. And what boy could ever consider me anything but his 'sister'?"

Betty gasped. "But what about Howard?"

"What about Howard?" Terry demanded. "I've only had four dates with him, and we spent all of them discussing things man-to-man in my parlor. But I'm a girl, and I'd like to be treated like a girl for a change—even if I am the athletic type."

Betty looked up at her friend critically. Terry was a rather good size, not chubby, but just big and strong and remarkably healthy looking. But she wasn't bad-looking—in fact, she was quite attractive. No, Betty decided, Terry's looks weren't at fault so it must be her capable sisterly attitude.

A sudden thought struck Betty. "Terry, how about finding a boy who's more athletic and capable than you?"

Terry practically glowered at the other girl. "I've already found a boy—and you know Howard isn't athletic at all. He's the studious type!"

Betty took a deep breath. This was a real problem. Up till a few weeks ago Howard had not only never noticed Terry in particular, but he'd never noticed girls in general. He was too immersed in reading books.

WILSON CHEM. CO., Dept. 148 87, Tyrone, Pa

"Will you help me?" Terry asked beseechingly.

"Why—why, of course," Betty stammered. This was the first time she could ever remember Terry's asking anyone for help. "But—but what do you suggest we do?"

"Well, how about a party?" Terry looked thoughtful.

"Just the thing!" Betty agreed enthusiastically. "We can have it in our rumpus room in the basement, and . . ."

"And I will not preside at the ping-pong table," Terry said determinedly. "This is one party that will show me up in my true feminine colors!"

. . . The evening of the great party finally arrived, though at times Terry had felt it never would. All week long, ever since she'd invited Howard, her heart had jumped to her throat every time she saw him. But his acceptance of the invitation apparently hadn't had any effect on his studious nature. Whenever they met, all Terry could base her hopes on was his usual hello.

But still she couldn't suppress the excitement she felt while she was getting ready for the party. It had been decided that Terry wouldn't help Betty serve the refreshments or play the records or roll up the rugs. She'd just sit in her new blue frilly party dress and look pretty and let Howard wait on her.

She took a last look at herself in the mirror before she left. Yes, everything was all right—her dress was really pretty, and even though it would have been better if she were a little more petite, the dress did its best to make her look very feminine.

Everyone else was already at the party when she arrived so she followed Betty demurely down the basement steps and over to the love seat where Howard was sitting, surveying the festive scene with what might be called a curious look. When some of the boys yelled to Terry to play some ping-pong with them, she just waved airily, then sat coyly down beside Howard.

"Hello, Terry," Howard greeted her. "You look very attractive in that dress. Is it new?"

"Yes, it is," Terry answered shyly. Her plan was working! "But I never thought you noticed how I looked."

"Why, of course I have," Howard answered, sounding a little surprised. "But I thought you knew that without my telling you." He hesitated a moment, and all of a sudden Terry felt something was wrong. "It's just that I always felt you were the kind of girl a fellow could talk to seriously—without going in for all of that obvious chatter!"

Terry could have screamed! Suddenly she realized that she didn't have to act like the other girls to impress Howard. She hadn't understood that all the time he'd liked her as she was. Why, she'd been the one who'd misunderstood him! What could she do now? Run to play ping-pong? Go help Betty serve? Make sure everyone else was having a good time? Somehow all these ideas seemed to fall flat.

But suddenly her dismayed thoughts were interrupted. The girls were screaming and jumping up onto the chairs, and the boys were running around trying to calm them down.

Terry jumped to her feet. "What is it?" she called.

"A mouse!" Betty yelled back. "Get up on the chair, Terry! Get up!" Terry knew Betty meant that now was her chance to prove her truly feminine nature.

But Terry already had another idea. Quickly she turned to Howard. "Feel like helping me catch a mouse?" she grinned at him.

He stood up immediately. "Let's go!" he smiled back, and followed her out to the kitchen off the rumpus room. They hunted around, then, "Here it is," she said, pointing underneath the sink to a trap holding a dead mouse.

Howard picked it up and dropped it into the garbage pail. They sauntered back into the rumpus room, put a record on the victrola, and began to dance as the rest of the crowd slowly descended from their perches and stared at them with open-mouthed surprise.

"You know," Howard said apologetically as he stepped on Terry's foot, "I'm afraid I never learned how to dance."

"I can teach you," Terry offered happily.

"But I have learned about you," Howard continued, and he didn't sound the least bit studious, "and I guess I was right. Right?"

Terry didn't answer. She was too busy showing Howard how to jitterbug!

STAMP NEWS

By KENT B. STILES

Veteran philatelist will not be surprised to learn that 1948 has been a prolific calendar year numerically. It will be March or April of 1949 before final figures become available so that 1948's total can be accurately known but it is possible to estimate at this writing that from 2,500 to 2,600 major and minor varieties are the output of more than 150 of the world's Governments. Not since 1942, when more than 3,000 varieties were issued, has there been a postal deluge exceeding the one in 1948.

There, in the bizonal section occupied by American-British forces the postal authorities were allowed to issue their own stamps, and as these lines are being written, 42 varieties have been recorded. In the section occupied by French forces the latter permitted Baden to have one series of stamps, Rheinland-Pfalz another, Saar another, and Wurttemberg another; this situation brought at least 65 more varieties. In the Soviet zone the Russians provided nearly 100 overprinted stamps, and in the Anglo-American part of Berlin more than 100 overprinted items appeared. Thus in this trouble spot alone more than 300 varieties were produced.

China offers another example. As newspaper readers know, political turmoil existed in China, and stamp-issuing reflects that development. Economic conditions resulted in inflation, and ever-increasingly-high-denomination stamps became necessary. At least 70 varieties were in China.

"I WAS ASHAMED OF MY FACE

until Viderm made my dreams of a clearer skin come true in one short week"

(FROM A LETTER TO BETTY MEMPHIS SENT HER BY ETHEL JORDAN, DETROIT, MICH.)

If your face is broken out, if bad skin is making you miserable, here is how to stop worrying about pimples, blackheads and other externally caused skin troubles.

JUST FOLLOW SKIN DOCTOR'S SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

"I just want to be alone!" Is there anything more awful than the blues that come when your face is broken out and you feel like hiding away because of pimples, blackheads and similar externally caused skin troubles? I know how it feels from personal experience. And I can appreciate the wonderful, wonderful joy that Ethel S. Jordan felt when she found something that not only promised her relief—but gave it to her in just one short week!

When I was having my own skin troubles, I tried a good many cosmetics, ointments and whatnot that were recommended to me. I remember vividly how disappointed I felt each time, until I discovered the skin doctor's formula now known as the Double Viderm Treatment. I felt pretty wonderful when friends began to rave about my "movie-star skin." No more self-consciousness. No more having my friends feel sorry for me. The secret joy, again, of running my fingertips over a smoother, clearer skin.

Many women shut themselves out of the thrills of life—dates, romance, popularity, social and business success—only because sheer neglect has robbed them of the good looks, poise and feminine self-assurance which could so easily be theirs. Yes, everybody looks at your face. The beautiful complexion, which is yours for the asking, is like a permanent card of admission to all the good things of life that every woman craves. And it really can be yours —take my word for it!—no matter how discouraged you may be this very minute about those externally caused skin miseries.

A screen star's face is her fortune. That's why she makes it her business to protect her complexion against pimples, blackheads and blemishes. Your face is no different. Give it the Double Treatment it needs and watch those skin blemishes go away.

What Makes "Bad Skin" Get That Way?

Medical science gives us the truth about how skin blemishes usually develop. There are small specks of dust and dirt in the air all the time. When these get into the open pores in your skin, they can in time "stretch" the pores and make them large enough to pocket dirt particles, dust and infection. These open pores become infected and bring you the humiliation of pimples, blackheads or other blemishes. Often, the natural oils that lubricate your skin will harden in the pores and result in unsightly blemishes.

When you neglect your skin by not giving it the necessary care, you leave yourself wide open to externally caused skin miseries. Yet proper attention with the Double Viderm Treatment may mean the difference between enjoying the confidence a fine skin gives you or the embarrassment of an ugly, *un*beautiful skin that makes you want to hide your face.

The Double Viderm Treatment is a formula prescribed with amazing success by a dermatologist and costs you only a few cents daily. This treatment consists of two jars. One contains Viderm Skin Cleanser, a jelly-like formula which, penetrates your pores and acts as an antiseptic. After you use this special Viderm Skin Cleanser, you simply apply the Viderm Fortified Medicated Skin Cream. You rub this in, leaving an almost invisible protective covering for the surface of your skin.

This double treatment has worked wonders for so many cases of external skin troubles that it may help you, too —in fact, your money will be refunded if it doesn't. Use it for only ten days. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose. It is a guaranteed treatment. Enjoy it. Your dream of a clearer, smoother complexion may come true in ten days or less.

Use your Double Viderm Treatment every day until your skin is smoother and clearer. Then use it only once a week to remove stale make-up and dirt specks that infect your pores, as well as to aid in healing external irritations. Remember that when you help prevent blackheads, you also help to prevent externally caused skin miseries and pimples.

Just mail your name and address to Betty Memphis, care of the New York Skin Laboratory, 206 Division Street, Dept. 1, New York 2, N. Y. By return mail you will receive the doctor's directions, and both jars, packed in a safety-sealed carton. On delivery, pay two dollars plus postage. If you wish, you can save the postage fee by mailing the two dollars with your letter. Then, if you are in any way dissatisfied, your money will be cheerfully refunded. To give you an idea of how fully tested and proven the Viderm Double Treatment is, it may interest you to know that, up to this month, over two hundred and thirty-one thousand women have ordered it on my recommendation. If you could only see the thousands of happy, grateful letters that have come to me as a result, you would know the joy this simple treatment can bring. And, think of it!—the treatment must work for you, or it doesn't cost you a cent.
